

VSO Software Newsletter n°29

December 2013

In this issue:

- What's new?
- Feel the Christmas spirit

What's new?

- Cyber Monday discount!

No need to get in line at 2 AM in front of your favorite store to get a great deal for Cyber Monday! Simply go to our shopping cart and enter the code CYBER to get 20% off all our products. Offer ends Dec 3rd.

And this year, as always, remember you can offer our programs to anyone, the gift option is available in the order form.

-Create Blu-ray disks

Now you can create a Blu-ray structure and burn it to Blu-ray disks! With the latest updates of VSO Video Converter, Blu-ray Converter and DVD converter, select the HD Structure of your choice in the drop-down list of outputs.

Feel the Christmas spirit

- Rock your party thanks to VSO Software!

This year, why not host a karaoke party in your living room ? All you need is DVD player, a TV and (maybe) a good voice! Download your favorite karaoke videos on Youtube (just type the name of the song + karaoke) with VSO Downloader, then convert them to DVD with ConvertXtoDVD or VSO Video Converter. As simple as that!

- Your Christmas bonuses from VSO

Add a festive touch to your software: customize the voice notifications with this Christmas pack, and make DVD menus with these extra menu templates (include different designs: christmas, movie, kid, adult...)

If you want to contact us please use support form or our Facebook and Twitter accounts. Bye for now!
